Day 8: Bay Area --- Yosemite National Park --- Fresno

Take a road trip to Yosemite National Park, the internationally recognized World Heritage Site that offers a panoramic view of its miraculous granite cliffs, waterfalls, clear streams, and biological diversity. Hardly lacking for photo opportunities, get ready to view the 620-foot Bridalveil Fall that may show shimmering rainbows in the late afternoon; favorites amongst rock climbing enthusiasts, the granite monolith, El Capitan, and Half Dome; Merced River, a federally designated Wild and Scenic River; and Yosemite Falls, where the upper, middle, and lower falls cumulatively form the highest waterfall in North America (2,425 feet). We then will be heading to Fresno to spend the night.

Day 9: Fresno --- Las Vegas

Visit the shopping outlet on the way to Las Vegas, and arrive Las Vegas in the early afternoon. The famous Strip offers exciting venues with top performances, extravagant shopping and some of the finest dining in the world. You may join an optional night tour and see a breathtaking show, as well as experiencing world-class casinos and the sleepless strip with dazzling neon lights. (Optional fees not included)

Day 10: Hoover Dam --- Grand Canyon South or West Rim (Fees Vary)

A photo stop at the gigantic Hoover Dam to see one of the greatest engineering works in history. For Grand Canyon tour, you have an option between the Grand Canyon south or west rim.

South Rim: Approximately 4.5 hours of driving from Las Vegas will take you to the Grand Canyon's South Rim. See the canyon from the South Rim with its dramatic views into the deep inner gorge of the Colorado River. You can take time to explore the Grand Canyon at your own pace. Due to time constraint for the driver, we will stay at the site for 1.5 hours, and then return and arrive at Las Vegas at about 8pm.

Grand Canyon West: Approximately 3.5-hour drive from Las Vegas allows for us to stay and visit for 3 to 4 hours. From the unobstructed views on the bus tour, you may take photos of the canyon's uniqueness. Skywalk (optional), located at the far western end of Grand Canyon, is managed by the Hualapai Tribe. On Skywalk, you can enjoy the magnificent view from 4000 feet above, standing upon a horseshoe-shaped steel frame with a glass bottom. Rocks that date back 1.8 billion years line the bottom of the canyon. You may also board helicopters (optional) for canyon flyovers and descend and land 3500 feet into the Hualapai Indian Territory within the Grand Canyon. We then will return to Las Vegas at about 6pm.
